The C. & L. R. R. has at length reached Cynthiana; the first passenger train reached that point about ten days since.

The Grand Barbecue to be given by the people of Harrison in honor of the event, will take place on THURSDAY THE 8TH DAY OF JUNE. Hand bills are out announcing the important fact, and inviting "all the world and the rest of mankind" to come up and partake. Preparations will be made for twenty thousand persons.

Among the patents issued for the week ending the 23d inst., was one to Lewis C. Suggs, of Lexington, Ky., for improvements in processes for treating hemp.

Georgetown College.

The Catalogue of this Institution, just issued from the office of Hull & Brodier, Louisville, has been placed on our table by the President D. R. Campbell, L. L. D.

It is pleasant to the eye of the practical printer to see so neat and elegant a job; we do not know that we have ever seen one gotten up in better taste.

The condition of the College as herein set forth is extremely gratifying and prosperous—showing the following number of Pupils that have been connected with and receiving instruction at this Institution during the present Collegiate year, viz:

Resident Graduates,	3
Seniors,	7
Juniors,	13
Sophomores,	30
Freshman,	70
Academy,	88
Total,	211

The Catalogue further informs us of the terms of admission, hours of study, Text Books, Library, Apparatus, Cabins, Museum, Discipline, Boarding Houses, Literary Societies—takes a bird's eye, but very correct view of our beautiful village, and gives every item of information necessary to inform the minds of any who desire information relative to the very best College for obtaining a thorough education known to us—we recommend the perusal of this Catalogue to all young gentlemen wishing to enter or prepare for College, doubt not that they will then be induced to make this their Alma Ma a. A new feature, we discover in this and not in any previous Catalogue, is the Theological Department, which will open for the admission of Students, free of charge, on the 3d Monday in September next—The Students in this department, we discover, obtain boarding in a Spacious Hall erected for that purpose at $1. per week.

The able Faculty now attached to the various departments in this College, needs no commendation from our pen—they are such as would give dignity and importance to any institution of learning in any country—The names of the Faculty—Board of Trustees and the various Committees, are attached to the Catalogue, and any person desiring information in reference to them can obtain it there—we trust a still larger class will fill the spacious rooms in this College the next year, and that it may go on from year to year, imparting useful and substantial knowledge to larger and still larger classes, until the Trustees will have to enlarge their buildings and increase the Faculty. We greatly desire to see Institutions of learning flourishing, and this one in particular.

NEW MUSIC.
We are pleased to notice a few choice Gems for the Voice and Piano Forte, just issued from the press of William Hall & Son, New York:

"Summer Evenings," consisting of twelve beautiful Melodies for the Piano Forte, by WILLIAM DRESLER, each 12 cis.
"Maiden's Pleasure," a choice selection of Polkas, Marches, Waltzes, &c., arranged in brilliant style for the Piano Forte, by CHARLES GROBE, each 25
"The Mother's Smile," ballad by WILLIAM VINCENT WALLACE 38
Serenade, "Soft Evening Air," by J. A. FOWLER 25

The high reputation of all these composers—a sufficient guarantee for the excellence of their music. We can only say that the pieces before us are brilliant and effective for the parlor, pleasing and instructive for practice, and such as will improve the taste, and give satisfaction to both player and listener. Address WILLIAM HALL & SON, 239 Broadway, New York, who will send by mail, post-paid any of the above pieces, on receipt of the marked prices.

TENPENT AND SUNSHINE, or Life in Kentucky, is the title of a new novel, depicting social life in and about Franklin county; it is written by a lady, Mrs. Mary J. Holmes, and is one of the most readable and pleasant books of the season. We do not know whether the work is for sale in this town, having received our copy direct from the publishers, Appleton & Co., New York; if it is not however, it ought to be.

The Nebraska bill as it has passed the House, is the same as the Senate bill, with the exception of the "Clayton amendment," which precludes unnaturalized foreigners from voting in the Territory. That has been stricken out and therefore the bill goes back to the Senate for concurrence.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. Chester, a young gentleman of Paris, Ky., whilst out gunning on the 20th inst., in crossing a fence, accidentally shot himself in the head, producing instant death.

Nebraska bill passed.

The long agony is over, the Nebraska bill having passed in the House by yeas 113 nays 100. Some amendments have been made to the bill in the House, it again returns to the Senate, which body it will pass, we presume, without much difficulty. Thus will be finally settled a great and important principle, the operation of which, in all future time, will tend to the common weal of all sections of our beloved country, by extinguishing forever, a political question in and out of Congress, which has ever been a bone of bitter contention—over between brethren of the same household,—threatening the dissolution of this glorious confederacy, and all the horrors of civil war. We rejoice at the passage of this truly Republican bill, and point with pleasure to the patriotic names enrolled among the yeas; among whom we are proud to find the name of the distinguished, zealous and patriotic Representative from this district, whose eloquent and active agency in the passage of this great National measure, has won for him the plaudits of his "peers," in Congress, and the warm approbation of a large majority of his patriotic constituency in this Congressional district. The yeas and nays will be found recorded in another column.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.
A writer in the April number of the Westminister Review, after elaborately discussing criminal legislation and prison discipline, arrives at the conclusion, that we cannot justify putting a criminal to death on the plea of protecting society from his outrages, because confinement would be equally effectual, nor by the plea of reforming him, for this is excluded by his death; nor by the plea of taking vengeance on him, for this is generally disavowed; nor by that of deterring others from crime who are still guiltless, because he is not answerable for them, or in any way connected with them.

From these considerations it appears to follow that, in dealing with offenders we are bound to restrict ourselves to those punishments, which, while they shall be equally efficacious in providing for the protection of society, shall be the least injurious to the criminal, and that there are only two in number, viz: confining a culprit for life; or, subjecting him to a temporary discipline, sufficient to produce such a change in his dispositions, that, after undergoing it, he shall be glad to return to society, cured of the disposition to infringe its laws. These conclusions appear to us eminently sound and just.

ADVERTISING—ITS ADVANTAGES.—The Town Board of Trustees, in improving the grave yard, had a lot of posts and rails to dispose of, and stuck up, by their agent, a few little written notices about the streets, notifying the public of the fact. The result was, the presence of four bidders all told, at the grave yard, at the hour appointed! Had they have spent one dollar in advertising in the County paper, we would have guaranteed a double number of bidders, and a third increase in the amount of receipts in the town treasury. This, however, is not the first or only instance of the "penny wise and pound foolish wisdom" of this economical and "public spirited" Board, that has come under our observation. It is probable that we shall be compelled, by a sense of duty to our patrons, to call the attention of our payers to an item or two more "of the same sort."

In another column will be found an interesting letter from a Texas correspondent who is far better versed in the use of the pea than in the use of the "shovel and the hoe!" We trust that his Texas "acclimating," while it does not materially diminish his available resources will be the means of recuperating his physical and mental energies.

A new counterfeit $10 bill on the Northern Bank of Kentucky has made its appearance in Cincinnati. It is well calculated to deceive inexperienced persons, though by comparison with a genuine bill the counterfeit can easily be detected. The spurious bill is a very little longer and narrower than the genuine, and is printed on inferior paper.

One day last week, in the case of the Board of Trustees vs. James Harkley, on a charge of selling liquor by the small, without license, one of the witnesses, Ben Gibbons, formerly Marshal of the town, was committed to prison by Judge Stevenson, for the term of three hours, for an alleged contempt of Court, in refusing to take the usual oath.

The Lexington Statesman states that holders were asking $5 for hemp, but it has heard of no sale at that figure, for several days, and the tendency is downward. It is quoted at Mayville at $7; and for extra $7.50 & 8.

FAHREBERG.

We learn that the fare from Lexington to Cincinnati, through Georgetown, has been reduced to the low price of $2.

The proprietors (Irvine & Fields) of the daily mail stage between Lexington and Cincinnati, via Georgetown, Williamsstown, &c., are carrying passengers from Lexington to Cincinnati for the low fare of 2 dollars, in fine, large Coaches, and over a first rate turnpike road. We can safely recommend this route as much the cheapest, most pleasant, and safest route to Cincinnati. Passengers will find this route $3 cheaper in fare alone than the Paris and Cynthiana route. There will be no detention on the road, no changing of baggage or vehicles, no extra charge for portage or baggage, as they will deliver passengers and their baggage in any part of the city.

Offices:—Lexington, Pknox Hotel. Georgetown, Georgetown Hotel. Cincinnati, adjoining Gibson House.

The stage leaves Lexington every morning at 5 o'clock, A. M., and Georgetown about 7 o'clock, A. M.; leaves Cincinnati every morning at 7 o'clock, A. M., and arrives there and at Lexington about the same time in the evening.

Taking into consideration that this line is now one of the best conducted stage-lines in the County, no accident having occurred on it whatever for a year or more, and that the route is over an excellent turnpike road, together with the very low price charged, it may be expected to attract the travelling public.

The Nebraska bill, the Senate concurring in the House amendment, excluding the Clayton amendment, was passed on the 26th inst, and upon receiving the signature of the President it will become the law of the land.

This bill was then ordered to be engrossed for a third reading—yeas 35, nays 3.

Mr. Sumner said he had a letter from his colleague striving to make arrangements to pair off with some other Senator, but no such arrangement had been made, and, if present he would vote for the bill.

On the passage of the bill Mr. Sumner asked for the yeas and nays, which the Senate refused to order.

At quarter past 1 the Senate adjourned. [Immediately after the passage of the Nebraska bill a salute of 100 guns commenced firing from Capitol Hill.]

The proceedings of Congress otherwise for the past two days, possess but little interest for the general reader.

On the 26th, the House went into committee on the amendment to the deficiency bill, and very many of the Senate's amendments were reported. Among them the amendment proposing $771,000 for custom houses at St. Louis, Mobile, Cincinnati, Louisville, Bangor, Bath, Wilmington, Providence, and San Francisco, and the appropriation of $131,500 for various marine hospitals, including those at Louisville, Paducah and Evansville.

The House then adjourned till Monday.

We understand that Mr. G. R. HAND has been appointed agent of the Ohio Life Insurance Co., for this county. A pamphlet with which he has furnished us, gives a very interesting view of the subject of life insurance, and the terms upon which the Ohio company insures.

The Ladies' Christian Annual for June is already on our table; a superior number of a choice periodical, eminently worthy of the patronage of the sex.

Graham's Magazine, ever punctual in its appearance, has been received—the June number abounds with good reading of the wholesome sort, and numerous engravings, the most comical of which are those representing Harum's "grand bust with the whole company," on the re-opening of the Crystal Palace.

Messrs. W. C. Gano and W. Warnock of Harrison County, and Jas. Hagg of Scott county started on Thursday the 18th inst for Europe as agents for a company to purchase stock. Gano and Hagg go to England for Cattle, Sheep, and probably other stock, and Warnock to Spain for Jacks and Jennets. They go to select the very best and carry with them a large amount of money.

Considerable excitement exists in Annapolis, Md., relative to the escape of a young monk from a monastery at that place, and his recapture by a priest and sexton. He called upon the citizens to release him, asserting that he had been starved and otherwise ill-treated. His captors informed the people that he was insane. A habeas corpus has been applied for.

An agent of the government is now in Cincinnati purchasing horses for the army, at prices ranging from $300 to $150.

See first page for an advertisement of Mr. James Harkley to the public, on the subject of tavern licenses, and the action of the Board of Trustees.

FLATTERY.—It is said that women love flattery. They may love to be praised for the good qualities which they may think may belong to them; but if they do not think themselves entitled to the praise given, or do not believe that he who bestows it thinks so—when it becomes flattery—it will be hardly acceptable. And as weak men react so much to this means of seeking favor with the fair, sensible women receive such offerings with great distrust, especially from one who is known to be in the habit of bestowing praise lavishly. Indeed, ladies would consult their own interest and happiness generally, by discountenancing everything that wears the appearance of flattery. If a man really admires a lady, he can find better, and—to sensible ladies—more acceptable means of proving his admiration than by stereotyped adulation and overwrought eulogy, from which true female sensibility must shrink. A very wise man has said, that as the slanderer is the most poisonous of wild beasts, so the flatterer is the most dangerous of tame ones. But if a lady be bitten by any of the class of gross flatterers that abound at this day, she is hardly entitled to pity.

Tuesday night was made hideous by the blasphemous 'howling' of an individual said to be crazy, and who has been more or less thus uproarious and disorderly for the last ten days. Certainly, as we have now no night watch, some means should be adopted by the town authorities whereby the outrages and violence of this individual should be summarily checked; lest his mania should lead him to attack life as well as property, of which he was guilty on Tuesday night. Why not place him in 'duranda villa,' until reason has resumed her throne? It could do him no harm, would add to the peace and comfort of sick and suffering humanity in the neighborhood, and might save the shedding of bitter tears, if not blood!

The numerous friends of the Rev. H. H. KAVANAGH, of Kentucky, will be gratified to learn that he has recently been advanced to the first position in the Church of which he has so long been a minister. The General Conference, now sitting at Columbus, Ga., having determined to elect three additional bishops, have conferred this honorable and responsible distinction upon him as one of the three.

The Potomac Gift Lotteries have been decided to be a species of gambling, by Judge Woodruff, of New York, who says they are an attempt to evade the penalty of the act to prevent raffling and lotteries. The parties engaged in those gift enterprises are in the hands of the law.

THE PRINTING OFFICE.—Winthrop, in his recent lecture before the Charitable Mechanics Association, made this remark in regard to a printing office, as a good school.

"There is an atmosphere in a printing office, which, somehow or other, puts untions into boy's heads, too—an atmosphere which is apt to make quick blood quicker, and impulsive hearts bent higher, and active brains work harder until those who were only intended to set up types for other people's thoughts, are suddenly found insisting on having other people to set up types for their own thoughts."

GRATEFUL YOUNG AMERICA.—A day or two since, an adventurous boy, numbering some ten summers, undertook to skiff across the Ohio, from Cincinnati to Covington.

When a little over half his voyage had been accomplished, a German gentleman standing on the Kentucky side, saw the frail bark capsize and the boy struggling in the angry tide. In a moment he divested himself of coat and boots and plunged into the stream to the youth's assistance.—He reached him just as he was sinking for the last time, and caught the youngster by the head, an which the latter seized him by the arm, and for a moment both were in danger of being lost. Happily the gentleman possessed great presence of mind and gave the boy a sudden kick, the effect of which caused him to release his hold, and enabled his preserver to bring him safely to shore. Again on dry land, Young America shook himself like a true water-dog, and inuring to his preserver, said in emphatic tones "What the d—d I did you kick me for, you d—d old Dutchman?"—Cin. Con.

The following is the vote by which the Nebraska bill passed the Senate:

J., Thomas, Tourey, Weller, Williams, and Wright—31.

HYSPERGIA AND INDIGESTION.—These great scourges of our people cannot be too well understood, or the means of averting or curing them too highly appreciated. The person who discovers any means of cure or alleviation, confers a benefit upon his fellow, and is deserving of honor. This desirable consummation, has been achieved, and not only may dyspepsia be cured, but it may be prevented, by the use of "Blood's Glycerin Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia, which medicine is spoken of in terms of the highest commendation by thousands who have tested its efficacy. It is perfectly innocuous in its nature, and possesses the valuable quality of improving the health of the robust, as well as restoring the length of the sick.

SYNOPSIS OF SCOTLAND AND DISEASES BLOOM.—For these terrific diseases, Carter's Spanish Mixture is the only specific.

The proprietors have in their possession over one hundred certificates of the most extraordinary cures effected by it.

We refer to the certificate of Richard Adams, late High Sheriff of Richmond, Va., E. Edw. Burton, Commissioner of the Revenue for Richmond, General Welch, of the Mammoth Circus; Dr. Hendly, of Washington City; Mr. W. A. Mathews, and C. B. Luck, Esq., of Richmond, Va.; Mr. F. Heyden, Exchange Hotel, Va.; and a host of others, who have seen some of the worst descriptions cured by Carter's Spanish Mixture. They all testify that it is the greatest purifier of the blood known.

May 27, 1854 11-3c JOHN F. PAYNE.

A few weeks, since, we gave a very humorous poem, entitled, an 'Original Love Story,' in which the lovers finally, from the word shant, shantied. A continuation of the 'Story' appears in a Gooderstown paper which is too good to lose. The last line of the first story runs:

He said "Shun't we, my dear?" and they shantied!

The continuation goes on:

And gently beamed upon them love's rose-colored ray.

The bridegroom and bride of this ballad.

He said "let us walk in the clove of day. My own lovely Sally"—and they sallied.

He plucked her the sweetest and loveliest flower

That scented the path where they wandered,

And when she exclaimed, "let us turn from this bower,

And roam near the pond"—then they pondered

And when the glad sun had his radiant light,

And the frogs a "good evening" had cracked,

Said the bride—"As the moon is just peeping in sight,

We'll walk round the slope"—and they sloped

Old Time softly paused o'er the home of this pair,

Nor grief or perplexity haunted,

And when the meek husband asked, "what may I want?"

She answered, "plaid-panes"—and he plaided

So, like a good wife, was his wardrobe her care,

(Neglecting it seemed to her wicked.)

And when she brought linen so shining and fair,

Saying—"wear this, dear Dick,"—then he died.

And when a bright had of divinity came

To gladden the house where it tarried,

They put to a vote that the young stranger's name

"Sweet Carlo" should be—and 'twas carried.

Mrs. McBrayer was alive on Monday evening and some hopes are entertained of her recovery. None of her limbs are quite so nearly severed as was at first reported, and if she recovers at all it is not supposed that she will lose any of her members except one or two of her toes. But the laceration and butchery of her person is most horrible. The physicians counted over thirty marks of distinct blows with the axe—some with the edge, and some with the poll; and it seems nothing less than a miracle that the child failed to kill her outright. The child that was injured was a little boy, not a little girl, as stated in our last.

We find the above in the Frankfort Commonwealth. Her stepson, who is charged with the crime, was held to bail in the sum of $5,000. Her father went his bail.

ADDITIONAL INVOICE OF PIANO

FORTES enable us still to offer the largest and finest assortment to be found in the city. We have every variety of style, and of price that cannot fail to suit purchasers. Some dealers are making a strong effort to depreciate the value and excellence of Chickering's Piano Fortes, and from self-interest resort to this device. But the Chickering Piano Fortes are now manufactured of inferior quality. Such assertions contain no particle of truth, neither do those who make them believe any word of them. On the contrary, they are now what they have been for 20 years—the best Piano Fortes in the country. Why should they be otherwise? There are the same workmen, the same foreman, and the same who have been associated with the father for several years, are giving all their energy and attention to sustain a reputation justly and honorably acquired, and which the anxious will assent only to their own disadvantage.

We have a good assortment of these instruments on hand, together with those of H. Worcester, Woodward & Browne, and T. Gilbert & Co.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

THE subscriber wishes to sell The House and Lot in which he now resides, situated on Main Cross Street, in Georgetown, Ky., adjoining the Georgetown Hotel. The house is of brick, containing nine rooms, a back porch the length of the house, besides kitchen, servants' rooms and all necessary out buildings, including stable, carriage house, &c., all in good repair; the lot fronts on main cross street 120 feet, and running back (in part) in Water street, and is considered one of the best pieces of property in the place; and from its location, size and general appearance would make a first rate boarding house.

ALSO—The frame house and lot opposite the above, situated on the east side of Main Cross street, fronting on said street 150 feet, and running back 25 feet, upon this lot there is a neat building spring of good water as is in the town. I consider this a superior lot of ground.

CURRYN SHOP.

DEAFNESS, PARTIAL OR TOTAL: ENTIRELY REMOVED.

DR. ALSPHERT begs to call the attention of those suffering from a total or partial loss of the hearing, to the following facts. He treats diseases of the middle and internal Ear with MEDICATED DOUCHES.

Such as is practised in the Infirmary of Berlin, Leipzig, Brussels, Hamburg, and St. Petersburg, and lately by the most distinguished London Aurists, with the most wonderful success. Indeed, it is the only method that has been uniformly successful. The best proof of the efficacy of the treatment will be a reference to nearly

Nine Hundred Names,

Residents of the United States, Canada, New Brunswick, and Nova Scotia, who have been restored to Acute Hearing, and to a single solitary case, to our knowledge, did we fail to effect either a partial or total restoration of the hearing, when our advice and instructions were faithfully and punctually adhered to. Many who could not hear the report of a pistol at arm's length, can now hear a watch beat at the distance of 4 feet.

In cases of mucus accumulation in the Eustachian Tube and Tympanum, Inflammation of the Mucus Membrane, Nervous Affections, Diseases of the Membrana Tympani, commonly called "the Drum," or when the disease can be traced to the effects of Fever, Cold, the use of Quinine, Mercurial Medicines, Cathartics, in the Ear in childhood, &c., Dr. Alspert's treatment affords a permanent cure. Where the Auditory Canal is dry and acutely, with little or no secretion when the deafness is accompanied with noises in the Ear, like falling water, chirping of insects, ringing of bells, rustling of leaves, continual pulsations, discharge of matter, or when, in stooping, a sensation is felt as if a rush of blood to the head took place, when the hearing is acute in dull, cloudy weather, or when a cold has been taken, this method of treating the disease is infallible.

In Deaf and Dumb Cases

my experience warrants me in saying, that if the hearing was at any time good, very much can be accomplished. In the Deaf and Dumb School at Leipzig, out of a class of 14, I succeeded in restoring Four to acute hearing. Dr. A. begs respectfully to state, that in those cases he undertakes to his remedies are faithfully applied and directions adhered to.

Guarantee a Successful Result

Applicants will please state their age, duration of disease, if matter issues from the external passage, if there are noises in the Ear, state of general health, and what they suppose to have been the cause of the deafness. When the hearing is restored it is expected that those in easy circumstances will pay liberally.

Medicines, Apparatus, &c.,

Will be sent to any part of my own expense

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

SAM. KEENE is puffing forth his Tobacco, and endeavoring to show his goods, as usual, in sugar and labeled in gold.

Contention, we have just received a severe variation of the weed which we could very properly call the "Belly Rattle," the "Sinner's Snuff," the "Lewins Tobacco," having been tested and approved by those gentlemen of acknowledged taste and refined sensibilities. As we think however, there is but little in a name, we offer the article upon its own merits.
